Technical Assistance Bulletin
TAB 2009-04
Formal Guidance on DWD Policy 2009-13

Purpose

This TAB provides formal guidance on DWD Policy 2009-13, Training Provider Eligibility and Establishment of the Eligible Training Provider List under the Workforce Investment Act (WIA).

Contents

The State Workforce Innovation Council (SWIC) approved DWD Policy 2009-13 at its May 13, 2010 meeting to re-establish the SWIC's oversight role in approving WIA eligible training providers.

Approval of this policy allowed the Indiana Department of Workforce Development (DWD) to build a new comprehensive, computerized system for approving WIA eligible training providers. The target date for completion is December 2010, at which time the entire policy will go into effect. DWD will notify the regions and existing training providers when the new application system is operational.

In the interim, the current application process for approving eligible training providers remains the same. The approval criteria for initial eligibility in DWD Policy 2009-13, page 12, are effective immediately with the exception of the performance criteria. Training providers are not required to submit performance data at this time, but should be encouraged to collect student data in preparation for the new performance requirements.

The Educational and Training team at DWD will present a webinar June 24, 2010 at 9:00 AM to discuss the policy and approval criteria and respond to questions.

Guidance on Approval Criteria for Initial Eligibility

The Regional Workforce Boards and the Indianapolis Private Industry Council may continue to utilize their own approval and denial criteria as long as they do not conflict with the new approval criteria summarized below:

- Title IV training institutions and their training programs are automatically eligible as long as their programs are credit bearing and Pell eligible. See Attachment 1 for a list of Indiana's Title IV institutions.
- Training providers that offer apprenticeship programs approved by the US Office of Apprenticeship are automatically eligible. To verify eligibility, please contact John Delgado, Indiana State Director for Office of Apprenticeship, at 317-226-7003 or Delgado.John@dol.gov.
- Training providers that are accredited by a US Department of Education approved accrediting body are automatically eligible. Accrediting bodies approved by the US Department of Education are listed at <http://ope.ed.gov/accreditation/Index.aspx>.
- Training providers accredited by the Indiana Commission on Proprietary Education (COPE) are automatically eligible. A list of accredited training providers is posted online at <http://www.in.gov/cpe/2337.htm>. For additional information visit the commission's site at <http://www.in.gov/cpe/>.
